Preface

The End of Germ Theory is a video made by Spacebusters. It is an extensive two and a half hour deep dive into the fallacious theories that are virology. See it here: The End of Germ Theory

The narrator cites and reads from many documents throughout the video. This PDF is a list of clickable links to the documents, in order of appearance in the video. The time in the video of each one's first appearance is noted.

Note that not everything cited in the video was able to be found.
