The Council on Foreign Relations and the Media

See the February 12, 2018 article by Matt Agorist, WikiLeaks Exposes How Council on Foreign Relations Controls Most All Mainstream Media, about the depth to which the CFR has penetrated mainstream media. About halfway down the article there is a graphic, which when clicked will expand and when clicked again, will reveal a super high definition image.

You can also download the image here: The American Empire and its Media Graphic. (On a Mac, in Preview, Command+0 {zero} will make it full size.)

The graphic also includes members of the Trilateral Commission and the Bilderberg Meetings. Note that at the very bottom of the graphic is a list of the abbreviations used next to the photos of the media moguls and personalities, regarding their affiliations.

See also the article on the Swiss Policy Research website that Matt Agorist refers to, The American Empire and its Media for more information.
